We are selling two apartments in Rovinj in a prime location!

The two apartments are connected into a large office space that is fully equipped and is being sold as such.
There are two separate entrances to each apartment, and the apartments are split level and have separate meters.
The building was built in 2012, but in such a way as to fit into the appearance of the old town.
The apartment also has 179m2 of land behind the building that could be used for parking.

We are at your disposal for more information.
