Price : 141.000 €

In exclusive sale, we have an attractive building plot of a total of 940 m2 with a regular shape, located in a quiet and easily accessible area - the village of Radeki Polje in Loborika.

A special advantage of the plot is the two access roads, which provide greater flexibility for construction. The land is flat and is situated right next to an asphalt road with infrastructure (electricity, water) nearby.

In collaboration with a local architect, an architectural project for the construction of a single-family house has been developed, and conditions for connection to the infrastructure have been obtained. Floor plans and dimensions are shown in the advertisement images and are available for viewing upon inspection of the land.
