----------------	-----------------

In the area of the Town of Vrbovsko, in the village of Plemenitaš, agricultural land with a total area of 3,723 m² is for sale.

According to its registered land use, the property consists of pasture and arable land, while in its current state it is covered with forest. The land forms one connected unit and has proper access via an existing forest road, providing convenient access to the property.

The land is situated in a peaceful area surrounded by greenery, typical of this part of Gorski Kotar, away from urban noise and intensive development. The existing vegetation provides a natural forest setting and privacy.

The property may be of interest to buyers looking for a larger area of agricultural land, their own piece of forest and nature, or land to be used in accordance with the possibilities permitted by its agricultural designation.

Plemenitaš offers exactly what one would expect from a property of this kind – peace, greenery and almost four thousand square metres of private space surrounded by nature.
