This land really sounds like a great opportunity! With 1,081 m² of building area and 2,918 m² of agricultural area, it is ideal for various types of buildings, whether it is a family house, a weekend house or a farm. The proximity of an asphalt road, and the availability of water and electricity, make this land very practical for construction. Additionally, the location near Josipdol (only 8 km) means that all key amenities such as shops, schools and health services are easily accessible.

If it is a place where peace and nature are important, the presence of a stream and flat land certainly make this place even more attractive.
