Legend has it that some people got lost in the forest, and when they came to the clearing, they saw beautiful ash trees (which are still abundant in Jasenko today). They settled there and so life began in this area. Also, the Jasenčica stream passes through Jasenak. They say that the air of Bjelolasica is suitable for people with asthma and heart patients.

If you want to go to the sea, the road of the so-called Rudolfina will bring you to Novi Vinodolski or Crikvenica in only 50 km. Jasenak is about 100 km away from Zagreb, and from Rijeka 75 km.

Bjelolasica is the highest mountain in Gorski Kotar, and deep in the forest there is a strict reserve bijele and samarske stijene. It is planned to establish a nature park Bjelolasica from Jasenka to Mrkopalj.

Some of the attractions that are worth visiting are:

Mountain trail Bijele and Samarske stijene (2 km)

Mountain trail Klek (13 km)

Ogulin and Lake Sabljaci (25 km)

Visibility: 50 km

Otočac, Gacka springs, Kuterevo (65 km)
