LABIN, a medieval town on a hill whose old name is Albona, is a place where the richness of architecture combines with numerous art studios, a rich gastronomic offer and various tourist and cultural facilities.

This beautiful property is located in a quiet village near the town of Labin, with a superbly equipped, attractive interior with extremely entertaining sports and wellness facilities.

The location offers peace and privacy, while at the same time being well connected.

During construction and decoration, every detail, quality of construction and top-quality materials were taken into account.

It extends over two floors:

- the ground floor consists of a covered entrance and entrance hall, storage room, utility room, toilet, open space dining room, kitchen and living room with large glass walls leading to a covered terrace (a quiet place to relax with a coffee) and a summer kitchen.
- the first floor consists of three bedrooms, each with its own bathroom, a study-reading room, and a balcony with an open panoramic view.

The house is completely fenced with a spacious driveway and parking and surrounded by a landscaped lawn, planted olive trees and a green fence.

Tennis lovers have a full-size private tennis court at their disposal.

The property is equipped with various board games (five-a-side football, ping-pong (table tennis), bicycles.... and the emphasis
